

Call for Submissions for the JAMS Fall 2025 Conference

Planning Committee Chairperson
Izumi TSUJI (Chuo University)

Dear Members,

We are pleased to inform that Japan Association for Media, Journalism, and Communication Studies (JAMS) Fall Meeting 2025 will be held online on Saturday, November 29, 2025. We welcome research works that review, extend, or develop media, journalism, and communication studies. Please read the following instructions.

1 Conference Style

Individual paper presentations (both single-authored and co-authored papers) and workshops will be held online. All sessions are conducted in either Japanese or English.

2 Submission Guidelines

Please read the following guidelines and fill out the required information on the Google form. The deadline for submission is Friday, September 5, 2025. Notification of acceptance or rejection will be sent by Early-October.

3. Eligibility

- (1) All submitters must be members of the JAMS and have fully paid the membership fee up to the year of submission.
- (2) Non-members are required to apply for JAMS membership along with their submission (Please refer to the JAMS website for detailed instructions on how to join).

For workshops

Currently, organizers and presenters for workshops are limited to members of the JAMS (except for special projects organized by research subcommittees).

4. Notes for all sessions

- Topics that are highly defamatory to individuals, groups, or organizations or needlessly disclose personal information will not be accepted.

- Only one speaker is allowed per individual paper presentations and workshops at this conference.
- Only one entry per person is allowed for the conference.
- The Planning Committee and the Board of Directors will decide which time slot will be allocated during the conference. Requests for specific time slots are not accepted.
- If you have more than one affiliation, please indicate only one.
- If any information is incomplete or the guidelines listed below are not followed, your proposal may not be accepted.

Call for Submissions for the Individual Papers (both single-authored and co-authored papers)

1. Themes

- We welcome individual papers (both single-authored and co-authored papers) in the field of media, journalism, and communication studies.
- Abstracts submitted for individual papers must not have been previously presented or published.

2. Presentation Time

- Single-authored research papers will be 30 minutes (20 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for Q&A)
- Co-authored research papers will be 40 minutes (30 minutes for presentation and 10 minutes for Q&A).

Call for Proposals for the Workshop

1. Themes

The purpose of the workshop is to gain multiple perspectives rather than to necessarily reach a conclusion. Therefore, workshops are divided into two types: (1) Theme Sessions, where several members present and discuss findings on a specific research theme, and (2) Round Tables, where several members discuss issues expected to develop further.

Each workshop should have two speakers: an organizer and a presenter. However, if you wish to have multiple presenters, please provide a brief explanation for this arrangement. If you want to include speakers other than the organizer and the presenter, please also explain their roles and purpose.

*The Planning Committee may consult with workshop planners regarding the number of speakers and other details.

2. Presentation Time

Workshops will be 120 minutes.
